LYONS, August 16.-The Courier has a long statement of a popular de-monstration which recently occurred that the French Chambers are unhere. Yesterday about II a.m. a popular commotion, arising from the bad ws received from the army, took place in Place Croix Rousse ded in a deplorable conflict between police and the people. The partiulars of the affair have been much xaggerated. The origin of the uble was an old notary, L'Entillan name, well known for political upon the pedestal of a cross in the centre of Place Croix Rousse to make a speech to a group of laborers. His hearers were few at the start, but in a short time a large crowd assembled, and cries of Vive Le Republique were heard on all sides. Though called upon to stop by the police he persisted in his declamation calling upon the audience to defend him by the aid of stones. The authorities seized the orator, however, not-withstanding the violence offered. An officer having drawn his sword from his scabbard, was struck by one of these infuriated people in the abdomen, from which wound he died in a few moments. Five or six policemen were also wounded. L'Entillan and other principal rioters were arrested and taken to prison between two files of soldiers. The mass of the popula ion of the place Croix Rousse took no part in these violent proceedings. It was caused by a few turbulent characters. These demonstrations are gen-PARIS, August 16 .- The Journal Official contains a decree declaring erbourg, Brest, Leorienne and Rochefort in a state of siege. The Constitutionnel says the plan of conquest of the Prussians cannot any longer be a matter of doubt. The German Empire takes advantage of the Hohenzollern dynasty to inaugurate its policy of spoliation of the French territory, in the departments which the chances of war have given to the enemy.

The King of Prussia commands at present as territorial sovereign.

The Prussian government, which men and things in Paris, does not seem to be very strong in the towns of Alsace, which well know how to
